From the Principal

Hello, and wow! What a great start to the year. It has been so refreshing seeing all the kiddos fill our hallways once again. I got lonely over the summer!

And I am back to writing this weekly newsletter. I hope you enjoy the news, shoutouts, and pictures each week. You should receive a paper copy, and we also post the letter on Facebook and on our website.

This week will be a bit anticlimactic... just some information about pictures next week! This went out over email, but not everyone is set up in our system yet.

Tuesday Yearbook Pictures

This is a non-uniform day, so please feel free to have your student dress casually if you wish (but still school appropriately). Students will have their pictures taken individually for the yearbook. Order forms have gone home. Please have these turned in by Tuesday/Picture Day!

Wednesday Class Pictures

This is a Best Dress day (for All School Mass as well as class pictures). Classes will get pictures for the school calendar and we will also get a whole school picture.

As always, please feel free to reach out if you have any questions or concerns.

Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age.”
(Matt 28:19-20)
