From the Principal

It's Auction Season! We need all hands on deck for the next couple of weeks so we can knock it out of the park. The most immediate need is Auction Baskets. We ask each family to provide one. These are DUE MONDAY! Here is an excerpt from a recent email I sent around about them:

The baskets are displayed during the auction on the silent auction tables. By the end of the night, each of them will have been sold. The school benefits greatly from each and every one of these sales. We use the money throughout the year for a variety of purposes, from maintenance to safety items to field trips to teacher needs.

The baskets are generally created with a certain theme in mind. A long list of ideas is at the end of this email. I hope you are inspired, and have fun making something someone else will enjoy!

And here are a few of the ideas that were at the end of that email:

Ice Cream Basket - toppings, sundae dishes, waffle bowls and cones, sprinkles, ice cream scoop, cherries, ...

Art Basket - crayons, paints, construction paper, play dough, colored pencils, sidewalk chalk, paint brushes, finger paints, ...

Beach Bag - suntan lotion, blanket, towels, beach chairs, sand pails/shovels, beach ball, underwater camera, ...

From our assembly this week...

This week we had our first pep assembly of the year, where we welcomed LeBlond's homecoming royalty, and celebrated our fall athletes and our September Virtue of the Month winners. The virtue was humility. We discussed how humility doesn't mean thinking badly about yourself, but rather how we are called to think CORRECTLY about ourselves and our relationships with others, so that we do not fall into pride.

(above) Two of our students got FIRST and SECOND at a recent cross country meet.

Send news and pictures of the great things your student does. We will feature them in an upcoming Tiger Newsletter.
